

Sponsor-A-Student Program

Become a Premiere Member or higher of the College Sport Research Institute and receive a complementary registration to the Scholarly Conference on College Sport when you bring four or more students.

Program Details:

- Premier membership ($250-$499) + minimum of 4 students
  - Complementary faculty registration to Scholarly Conference on College Sport (SCCS)
  - Each student receives registration price of $55* for undergraduates or $75* for graduates (before February 26th)
  - Enhanced welcome kit at Conference Registration
  - Year-long recognition on member page of CSRI website
  - Recognition in SCCS Program
  - 10% Discount on CSRI Merchandise
  - CSRI logo golf shirt or laptop bag

- Available resources for approaching potential sponsors, including those within departments in your University:
  - Sponsorship deck templates and supporting documentation
  - Students may gain experience by working for a department in exchange for sponsorship

* Student Registration does not include Thursday banquet or Friday luncheon. Students may purchase tickets for luncheon and banquet through the registration website.

Overall Benefits to Students Attending the 2010 Scholarly Conference on College Sport

- Networking Opportunities
  - Graduate Programs and professionals from across the United States
- Grade Study Competition
  - Opportunity to represent yourself and your program
- Panelists and Speakers
  - Opportunity to witness some of the industry's greatest speak about current issues affecting college sport today
- Experience
  - First-hand experience attending an academic conference-witnessing theory and practice in action
- Internship Opportunities
  - Opportunity to learn about CSRI's newly implemented internship program